

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3246 – HB 3874

February 22, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes a prosecutor to allow parents or guardians of children violating truancy laws to attend parent education training and parent-teacher conferences as an alternative to criminal prosecution.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenue – Not Significant
Decrease State Expenditures - Not Significant

Decrease Local Revenue – Not Significant
Decrease Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Currently a parent or guardian can be charged with a Class C misdemeanor offense if their child has been adjudicated unruly for truancy. The provisions of the bill provide an alternative for the prosecutor.
- A small decrease in cases in the court system, which will result in reduced state and local government expenditures for processing the cases and reduced state and local government revenue from fees, taxes and costs collected. These reductions in expenditures and revenue are estimated to be not significant.
- Currently parents or guardians of children with five or more unexcused absences are required to attend a truancy board meeting before the case is turned over to juvenile court. Schools and attendance staff work with parents on an individual basis. Courts sometimes require parents to attend parenting programs. The cost of such programs are covered by grants or on a sliding fee schedule paid by the parent or guardian.

- Parent-teacher conferences are available when needed. At least one day a year is set aside for conferences and other times can be arranged if necessary.
